

5 Sequences Every Team Needs In Their Playbook

© ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

Intro

There's more pressure on revenue teams today than ever before. In order to keep up with growing demands, teams are looking to execute multichannel, multitouch engagement with buyers.

It's no surprise that many high-performing sales teams are adopting and embracing Al-powered sequencing solutions like Revenue.io's Guided Selling to help them scale their efforts and drive more revenue. In fact, Gartner predicts that 75% of B2B sales organizations will augment traditional sales playbooks with Al-powered guided selling solutions by 2025. "Revenue.io is recommended for sales organizations seeking a Salesforce-embedded coaching, pipeline and deal management technology stack enhanced real-time guidance."

Gartner.

Market Guide for Sales Engagement Application

Why?

Because these solutions minimize the guesswork of sales so you can spend more time talking with customers and closing deals. You can execute the perfect playbook every time.

Of course, that's all good in theory, but what are those best-in-class sequences? We're glad you asked.

Below, we are giving away the proven Guided Selling sequences that we use at Revenue.io to engage more buyers and close more deals.

1: Hot Lead Sequence (Setup)

This sequence is used to follow up with leads that you want to contact immediately, such as demo requests. Why is speed to lead so important? Organizations that contact a lead within the first hour are seven times more likely to qualify the prospect than an organization that responds in two hours.

► PRO TIP: We know that the faster we can respond to leads, the higher the chances are that we will be able to connect with them. Therefore, we've set the priority for the first steps on day 1 to high, which means they will show up higher in the Engage view. You should use high priority sparingly and reserve it for those situations that require urgent attention.

PRO TIP: When you are on a texting basis with a buyer, you are 5 times more likely to close the deal. That's why we advocate for establishing a texting relationship with buyers early.

Deal Acceleration Sequence (Setup)

주 Overview

Large, complex deals can take a long time to close, but it's important that reps are in constant communication with and providing value to their champions. Use this Sequence for late stage opportunities to continue building confidence with the buying team by providing valuable resources and positioning yourself as a trusted advisor.
